

	President Obama	Mittsy
Marriage	For an inclusive view of marriage that includes all couples and all families, a view included in the Democratic Party platform. Has stopped defending DOMA.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Against inclusive marriage; signed a National Organization for Marriage pledge supporting a national definition of marriage as one man, one woman. Also is not in favor of civil unions. Also also. National Organization for Marriage is a hate group.
Adoption	Believes all qualified caregivers should be permitted to adopt regardless of sexual orientation, race, religion or marital status.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Supports states right to choose, which means states can choose to ignore other states' rules on adoption. Also believes well-adjusted children have two parents of opposite genders and that no other type of family will produce well-adjusted children, even when we know that's not the case.
Funding HIV and AIDS Research	Lifted a ban on HIV-positive travelers , thus allowing the International AIDS Conference to take place in the US, implemented the first US National AIDS Strategy, continued funding for PREPFAR to combat HIV and AIDS in developing countries	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Says he's tough on HIV and AIDS and believes in funding for research, medicine and education, but has said repeatedly he would defund Planned Parenthood, which provides HIV screening and education.
Anti-Discrimination Legislation	Expanded federal hate-crime law to include crimes motivated by gender, sexual orientation, or gender identity. Launched Stopbullying.gov , supports the inclusion of LGBT community in the Employment Non-Discrimination Act. Five words: Lilly Ledbetter Fair Pay Act.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Promised to support the Employment Non-Discrimination Act in 1996, then flipped on it ten years later. Also, was unclear if he would have signed the Ledbetter Act into law. His party wouldn't have, that's for sure. Lilly Ledbetter says so herself.
