Tarot for the Month

by Beth

The Seer, from the Wildwood Tarot

You, my friend, are powerful beyond measure, but right now this power is subtle, not flashy. You have hidden depths and there are messages there for you. Listen closely.

Pay attention to your dreams. Dig deep. Look into your shadow and see the light that is there. Be brave. It's time to use the dark, hidden power that you usually forget that you have. Find a way.

Meetup Recap

by Claire

Cincy Straddlers walked in the Cincinnati Pride Parade this weekend! We were super glad to welcome some new faces and to give each other extra-tight (consensual) hugs. It was so good to generally be out with our whole LGBT family, seeing others and being seen ourselves, on such a beautiful, hot, rainbow-filled day. Happy Pride, Autostraddlers

1. I LOVED THE PIGEONHOLE NOTES

- they were a highlight of my week! Got a few, but was not brave enough to leave any in fear of starting something I couldn't finish. Never again - I feel guilty for not reciprocating. I'm GONNA LEAVE A NOTE TO WHOMEVER THE F*CK I WANT, WHEN I WANT, next year.

2. ALL THE CRUSHES!

I wish I had been brave enough to just say or DO something about it.
